

Course Summary

Approved by the UK CAA, Global ATS' Classroom Instructional Techniques course enables experienced ATCOs to validate as classroom instructors.

Training of this course is split into several methodologies, including:

- Classroom Lessons
- Classroom Observations
- Visual Aids, Lesson and Test Preparation Workshops
- Practical Lessons
- Final Written Tests

Course Curriculum

- Effective Presentations
- Systems Approach to Training
- Task and Topic Analysis
- Learning Objectives
- Instructional Methods
- Lesson Structure and Lesson Planning
- Visual Aids
- Questioning Technique
- Motivation
- Classroom Communication and Management
- Written, Oral, and Performance Tests
- Role and Personality of the Instructor
- Evaluation of Training

Course Duration
1-2 Weeks

Group Size
6-8 Students
per Course

Who Is This Course For?

This Classroom Instructional Techniques course is designed to enable experienced controllers to validate as classroom instructors.

Prior to commencement of this course, candidates must be able to demonstrate that they meet the following entry criteria:

- An excellent command of oral and written English, assessed to ICAO Level 4 English Language Proficiency at minimum
- Three years of practical experience as an Air Traffic Controller