

Course Summary

The Area Control Procedural course covers all procedures and aspects set out per the requirements and objectives for the ICAO 055 course.

The course combines theoretical and practical instruction, with exercises of increasing complexity so written, verbal, practical, and physical skills can be fully assessed.

Upon a candidates successful completion of the Area Control Procedural course, they are issued with a competency certificate

Course Curriculum

- Area Control Theory
- Separation Standards
- Air Traffic Management
- Data Display
- Unusual and Emergency Situations
- ICAO Doc 4444

Course Duration
7 Weeks

Group Size
3-8 Students
per Course

Who Is This Course For?

The Area Control Procedural course is ideal for candidates looking to pass the practical and theoretical instruction in Area Control Procedural and achieve their student ATCO licence.

Candidates hoping to undertake the Area Control Procedural course must demonstrate that they meet the following entry criteria:

- Hold a valid Class 3 Medical issued by an approved Aviation Medical Examiner (AME)
- An excellent command of oral and written English, assessed to ICAO Level 4 English Language Proficiency at minimum
- Successfully completed the ATC Ab Initio (ICAO 051) course